THE YEAR-END ONE TIME ONLY REALLY REALLY ETC. BIG WINTER DOUBLE IS

Happy Thanksgiving! Merry Christmas! Happy New Year! Happy Valentines Day!

Yes, it has been quite a while since the last issue, but as you can see, it was for a reason — the one and only full size PS to be made. It was mucho fun putting this together, but it was a hassle at the same time. Worth it for me, and I hope for you, too. Sorry about the price, but I went all out on this issue and am barely staying out of debt.

Mr. Ed. - b. boneless to wall.

Thanks this time go out to Mark Polek for sending POWEREDGE when they wouldn't. How, Mike Rot for comics and actually ordering a shirt, other zines that sent photos, and the flood of mail is thanks to TRANSWORLD, THRASHER, and POWEREDGE for the strange instance of adding us to the current issue of all three at once. But special thanks go out to Phil of the Y for funding a major chunk of #6. Without his help, this thing would have not been possible.

Her, is anybody writing this down?

This is a quiz to test you on your zine list memory retention skills. Draw a line from the zine's name to its address. Make your lines clean and sharp. When finished, raise your hand and the teacher will come by to take your paper.

PS SKATE "FASHIONS"

PS Shoes- Why bother putting tape on your shoes? These have pieces of rubber all over 'em. Available in many pastel colors and designed in France!

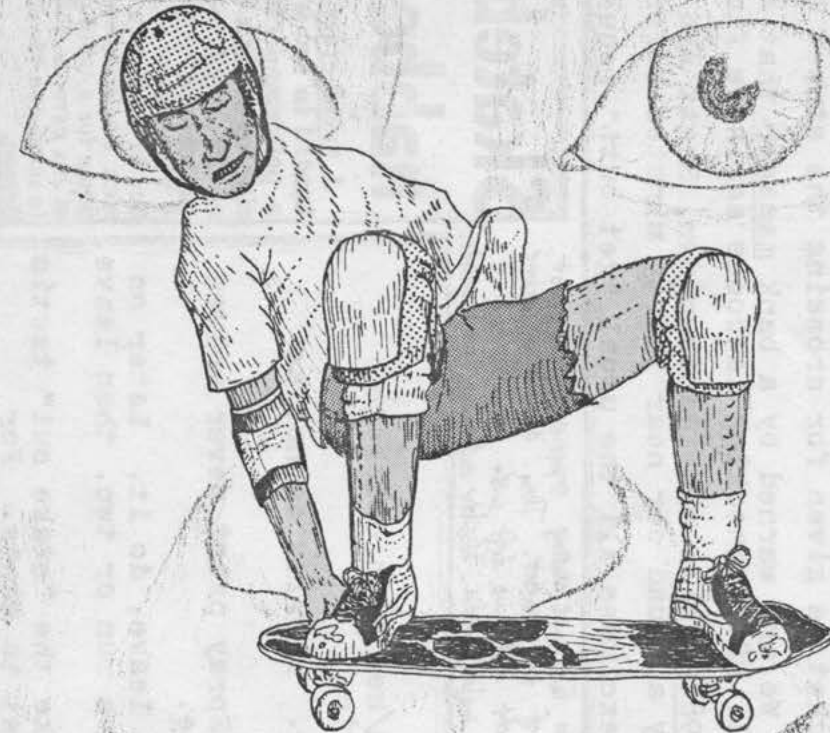

PS Dinner shirts- Out of the pages of GQ and into the world of skating! While skating you look like your late to church, but who cares, the babes dig 'em.

PS Skatepants- Nice'n'flappy for that stylish look. Covered with assorted skulls and other mean stuff so as to say to all around that "I am a skater."

PS Hat- Doesn't keep the sun out of your eyes, just looks like a cloth bag on your head. But it can be worn equally as well at a contest as at a social event.

So throw out those primitive shorts, or those jeans, and that T-shirt! Skating is not an activity, but a fashion show! Prove yourself through clothes, not skating! With the correct ensemble of PS Skate "Fashions" you're sure to be popular, a hit at all the sessions, and besieged by girls! So go get lots of autographs, but don't get the clothes dirty.

BIG BROTHER IS WATCHING

These next few pages are the results of the last ten months investigation into the existence of LARRY. For those just tuning in, LARRY is the attacker of skating fun. He takes many shapes, police, storeowners, rent-a-cops, and for many years has been responsible for the downfall of skating. To keep you up to date, we now show our efforts to control him in our area, and how you can control him in yours.

Any similarity between persons or places mentioned or alluded to in this article and real places or persons is probably right.

LARRY SIGHTINGS

July 1982- Snakerun begins to be built downtown at Reagan Park. City Council members stop construction for "insurance reasons".

June 1984- Halfpipe built by locals at a skater's house. Skater breaks his leg and his mother gets disturbed. Skater quits skating and his mother allows only half of the ramp to be moved. Rest is turned into a patio.

April 1987- Skating the streets downtown made illegal. Police say skating sidewalks also forbidden, but after checking lawbooks we find they're wrong. Later a ticket is given for crossing the street on a board.

July 1987- We are warned by a bank manager that skating a park they funded was illegal. After checking lawbooks again we find they are wrong also.

February 1988- While skating downtown, Scott and AAA are watched and followed by a squad car near thirty minutes before losing him.

This list excludes all the usual "get out!" requests.

← It is a little known fact that skating experienced its first surge at the turn of the century. Then it was a crime comparable to horse theft and was dealt with harshly.

→ Larrydom in the major media. Possibly anti-skate propaganda?

METHODS FOR LARRY OPPOSITION

Wrong (Don't)- Ignore and skate around him/her with complete abandonment. Larry may do something drastic.

Ask "Why" when told to leave. Larries cannot be talked to. They do not understand logic.

Vandalize their property. Spray paint never solved anything. All it does is make things worse.

RIGHT-When approached by Larry and told to leave, do it. Later on use the "Hit&run" strategy (Speed up, take a run or two, then leave to another spot.).

But if you crave longer sessions, take the "stake out" tactic. That merely means to find out when it's best to skate. For businesses Sundays and off-business hours are favorable.

However, private property is tricky. Cruise by often to see when they're gone, look for no lights or empty driveways. We've had lots of luck with a local bank using both methods.

GOOD LUCK

NEXT ISSUE-The long awaited actual photos of the one and only LARRY plus startling evidence that he existed thousands of years ago!

Skateboard teen gets nabbed for speeding

A speed-crazy schoolboy landed in hot water when a policeman clocked him zipping along a busy street at 30 m.p.h. — on his skateboard.

The shocked cop nabbed the boy in downtown Kidderminster, England, and took him home for a talking-to in front of his parents. Police refused to name the 13-year-old speed demon.

"The boy is lucky to be alive," said Chief Inspector Trevor Cooper. "He would have been killed if he had hit a car."

The cop who stopped him said the boy was lying flat on the board to reduce wind drag as he whizzed down a hill totally out of control.

Was it not BRUCE NOE seen sporting an AIRWALK arm tattoo on leave from the Navy? Does he not keep putting off sending us needed photos? Does he not owe me $5? Is that not average Navy-man behavior? Is SCOTT not destined for the same fate this summer?

There's been a strange surge of Palestine skate zines lately. Is it 5, or 6? Anyway, I'm not sure whether to be mad at their exploitation, or glad for their enthusiasm. Or don't care.

T R U C K T R I C K
After replacing a messed up truck, SCOTT skated fifteen minutes before realizing the new one was on backwards. Whether or not it hurt his skating is debatable. Just kidding. But honors this issue go to PEYTON. Even after his wheel fell off while dropping in at the Box, he powered his way, axle scraping, all the way up to the other deck. Whoa.

Eric, Mr. Ed's brother, was one of the first main core skaters in Palestine. Since then, he has (due to bad knees) quit skating, started again, quit, started again, then quit... he is now considering starting once again. Hmmm. Isn't there some sort of record?

A BEGINNER'S GUIDE TO ORDERING ZINES
(Always wear protective equipment)

1. Make a list of zines you want.
2. Steal envelopes and stamps from parents.
3. Put right amount of money and letter in envelope. Letters should be at least 1/2 to a full page long. We don't do this for $.
4. Mail it.
5. Wait.
6. Wait some more.
7. Get zine. Devour with your eyes, leave no part un-read.
8. Repeat.

For best results, send photos and other fun stuff. You'll find these guys are real generous when you let them.

Once and Always... a Skater

March '87

WITH HIS WIFE GONE AND HIS CHILDREN IN COLLEGE BILL HAD TROUBLE FINDING THINGS TO DO. SO HE WENT UP TO THE ATTIC TO CLEAN IT OUT. WHILE SEARCHING THROUGH BOXES HE CAME ACROSS ONE LABELED "SKATE". HE OPENED IT TO FIND IT FILLED WITH HIS OLD MAGAZINES AND ZINES WHILE RIPPING THROUGH BROWNED PAGES FILLED WITH HAWK, HOSOI, AND CABALLERO. HE THOUGHT BACK TO THE EIGHTIES. HE REMEMBERED HIS FIRST BOARD AND HOW HE SPENT HOURS DOING 360'S IN FRONT OF HIS HOUSE. HE THOUGHT OF HIS FIRST TRICKS AND HOW HE GOT BETTER AND BETTER TO WHERE HE BEGAN ENTERING CONTESTS. HE EVEN EXCELLED TO WHERE HE PLACED IN A MAJOR AMATEUR CONTEST. BUT THEN HE MET A WOMAN AND GOT MARRIED. AS HE STARTED A FAMILY HE MET RESPONSIBILITY & HIS SKATING SUFFERED. EVENTUALLY HE STOPPED ALTOGETHER AND FORGOT ABOUT SKATING. WITH A SIGH BILL LEFT THE ATTIC TO GO ON HIS DAILY JOG. AS HE RAN HE MISSED SKATING MORE AND MORE. HE MISSED THE WIEGHTLESS FEELING OF AN AIR AND THE ENJOYMENT OF A WELL PLACED GRIND. HE FELT STRONG AND IN GOOD SHAPE AS HE THOUGHT OF ACTUALLY STARTING SKATING AGAIN HE SAID TO HIMSELF "WHAT THE HELL, WHAT'VE I GOT TO LOSE?" AFTER A TRIP TO A SHOP BILL, NOW IN HIS EARLY SEVENTIES, NERVOUSLY CLUTCHED HIS NEW WIRE ENFORCED GRAPHITE BOARD IN HIS DRIVEWAY. HE DROPPED IT TO THE GROUND AND ROLLED IT BACK AND FORTH WITH ONE FOOT. AFTER HE GOT THE FEEL FOR IT, WITH ONE HOP HE WAS ATOP IT AND KICKING DOWN THE PAVEMENT. AS HE GAINED COURAGE HE WENT TO 360'S, NOSEWHEELIES, THEN

6-TURNS. HE EVEN MANAGED A LOUD GRIND ON THE SIDE OF THE DRIVE. ONE HE NOTICED A COUPLE STARING AS THEY WALKED DOWN THE SIDEWALK. HE JUST GRINNED AND KEPT RIDING. HE WORKED ON HIS OLLIES THE REST OF THE DAY THEN FINALLY WENT BACK INTO THE HOUSE TO REST. AS HE DRANK HIS THIRD GLASS OF WATER, ECSTATIC ON THE DAY'S PROGRESS, HE REMEMBERED HOW THE CLERK AT THE SHOP TOLD HIM OF A HALPIPE NEARBY.... RAMP! THE NEXT DAY HE TOOK ANOTHER TRIP TO THE SHOP FOR PADS AND DIRECTIONS AND LEFT FOR VERT. THE FEELING HE FELT AS HE SAW THE RAMP THROUGH A PATCH OF TREES WAS JUST LIKE THE FIRST TIME HE SAW DELMAR. THE LOCALS GAWKED IN PUZZLEMENT AS HE STEPPED OUT OF THE CAR IN FULL PADDING AND BOARD IN HAND. THEY WERE AMUSED THE FIRST DAY AS HE STRAINED TO CARVE NEAR THE COPING, BUT IT WASN'T LONG BEFORE HE WAS GETTING MEAN GRINDS AND EVEN AIR. BILL LIVED THE REST OF HIS DAYS A HAPPY SKATER.
